the courtesy of several of the most distinguished Shingle-ers, who have written to us, bearing testimony to the accuracy of their books, besides explaining many original plans for compensating labor, which a century, indeed, ago, were not known to exist.These advantages, we trust, will long persuade our students to a variety of Counting Houses, have enabled him to elaborate a novel and original system of commercial arithmetic, based upon the recent invention of mercantile reducing to actually developed by the student. A perpetual ticket for $25, is issued to
